Carlisle is still wearing his arm in a sling and it will be several months before he will have the use of it again.

On Thursday, July 10, we will have a farmers meeting at Reedy Creek Springs. At this meeting we will have Mr. A. F. Conradi, State Entomologist, who will talk to us on the Boll Weevil. Mr. Conradi has made a special study of the Boll Weevil for the past six or seven years and comes to us about as well informed on the Boll Weevil as any man in the South. Besides the talk by Prof. Conradi we will have a number of talks by other members of the Extension Division of Clemson and Winthrop Colleges. Immediately after these talks dinner will be served in picnic style, so come and bring the whole family and a well filled basket.

Lutie, the 9 year old child of Mrs. Arch M. Bethea had a narrow escape from serious and probably fatal injury a few nights ago. The little one left its bed on the sleeping porch and while still asleep raised a window and walked out on the roof of a porch and fell to the ground, a distance of about 15 feet. Mrs. Bethea was aroused in time to hear the window rattle and reached the window just in time to see the child disappear over the eaves of the porch roof. The little one struck the ground with a dull thud, but with the exception of a shaking up and several bruises it escaped injury.

For the past two months The Herald office has been one of the busiest places in the State. The Herald enjoys the distinction of being the largest tobacco warehouse supply printery in North or South Carolina and as the volume of work has been larger than ever this season. The Herald has been working over-time getting out the orders in time for the opening days. The Herald is shipping warehouse supplies to Georgia and Alabama and to many new warehouses in this state and North Carolina. The large increase in the volume of business—particularly new business—indicates a substantial growth in the tobacco industry throughout the Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama.

A Good Wife

Editor The Dillon Herald:

One of the old time Puritan preachers took as his text for a sermon upon one occasion the following: "He that findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favor of the Lord." Here is an excerpt from his sermon: "A good wife should be like three things, which three things she should not be like. She should be like a snail to keep within her house; but she should not be like a snail to carry all she has on her back. She should be like an eco, to answer when she is called; but she should not be like an echo, always to have the last word. She should be like a town clock, always keeping time with regularity; but she should not be like a town clock, speaking so loud as to be heard over all the town."

NOTICE

To My Farmer Friends:—

I take pleasure in telling you that I am in Dillon this season and will manage the Farmers Warehouse, the big new, well lighted house, and the best house in Dillon county. I have had twenty five years experience in the warehouse business and you who have known me in the past know I try to do my duty for every man alike, and strive to get the high dollar for all. It is impossible for me to get to see every one personally, but if you will come on and bring me your pound of it my personal attention and get you the top of the market every time. Hoping to see you at Farmers Warehouse with your first load,

I am truly your friend,
W. L. THORNBURG,
Manager.

THE MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEWARK, N. J.

THE MUTUAL BENEFIT HAS CANCELLED ALL WAR AND TRAVEL CLAUSES, HAS REFUNDED IN FULL ALL EXTRA WAR PREMIUMS, AND HAS PAID, OR WILL PAY, AS THEY ARISE, ALL WAR AND TRAVEL CLAIMS IN FULL, WHETHER OR NOT EXTRA WAR PREMIUMS WERE PAID.

The above is explained fully by the following from the Company's Seventy-fourth Annual Statement:

"When war was declared in this country, the Company insured lives of military age up to $5,000 on the Ordinary Life plan with extra war premium decided by a convocation of Insurance Commissioners and others to be reasonable, to wit, $37.50 per thousand, with an understanding that any unused balance of such extra premium in meeting the extra death losses from war would be returned."

THE HEART OF HUMANITY

THE PICTURE THAT WILL LIVE FOREVER

In 8 Gorgeous Reels — Starring Dorothy Phillips

"Conceived with a skill and intelligence that lift it high above its contemporaries. So stupendous that it claims a distinction all its own."—Tampa Tribune.

IT IS A VALUABLE PICTURE AND BRINGS TO US IN A FORCEFUL MANNER THE SACRIFICES WHICH WERE MADE AT THE FIRESIDE TO FREE THE WORLD.

SECT'Y OF WAR

NEWTON D. BAKER

"THE HEART OF HUMANITY" is human. Its bigness lies principally in its "Love Interest." Its scenes are unparalleled in their magnitude and magnificence, but the thing that will make the picture live is its tenderness and skillful betrayal of mother love.—Atlanta Constitution.
